CBS TELEVISION NETWORK: "48 HOURS MYSTERY"

04/07/07 - 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "The Ghost of David Coffin" - In December 1996, Atlanta resident David Coffin, having spent the weekend with his girlfriend, Megan Lee, returned home to find his house ransacked and his Porsche stolen. Two days later the burned remnant of his body was found lying on its back in the charred remains of his home -- the intensity of the fire had left no immediate clues to the cause of his death. Meanwhile, on that same night, Megan Lee's estranged husband, Scott Davis, claimed he himself had been attacked by an assailant who warned him to stay away from Megan and who then tried to set Davis' house on fire. When interviewed by police, Davis said that he had not shot Coffin -- which immediately made him a suspect, as police did not know at that point just how Coffin had died. Davis was arrested for murder, but with no physical evidence linking him to the crime, all charges were eventually dropped. Nearly ten years later, after Davis tried to run for Governor of California, and because of the persistence of David Coffin's father, the Atlanta Police Cold Case Unit reviewed the case against him. He was arrested again and charged with murder. During the trial, jurors heard from Megan Lee about their failed marriage; his fixation with David Coffin; and his incriminating statements, both to Megan Lee and the police, about how David Coffin died. Despite the alibi provided by the testimony of his father, Dr. Dave Davis, a forensic psychiatrist, Scott Davis was convicted of murder and sentenced to life in prison. He maintains his innocence; his attorneys plan an appeal. (C: Maureen Maher - P: Allen Alter, Gail Abbott Zimmerman, Daria Hirsch)

04/14/07 - 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "The Puppet Master" - A report on the marriage of Heather and Ron Samuels, who, even after divorcing, were involved in a bitter custody battle. In October 1997, newlyweds Heather and John Grossman were shot at while driving. John survived the shooting but a bullet severed Heather's spinal cord, leaving her a quadriplegic. Heather was immediately certain that ex-husband Ron was involved in the crime, as he had once threatened to make her pay for leaving him. Investigators were able to track down three men who they believed were involved in the assault: Hugh Estess, the car owner; Eddie Stafford, the driver, and Roger Runyon, the shooter. Also implicated was Geoff Pollock, who was present at meetings when the crime was discussed. Ron Samuels was named as the man behind the crime - the puppet master.

In exchange for complete immunity, police got the co-conspirators to acknowledge Samuels' lead role in the crime. Before Samuels could be arrested, he fled to Mexico. He ran afoul of the law there when police found six kilos of cocaine in his car. He was imprisoned and, five years later, still proclaiming his innocence, he was extradited to the U.S. to stand trial for the attempted murders. He was found guilty of all charges and sentenced to life in prison for the attempted murders, plus an additional 120 years for the other charges. The court ordered Samuels to pay Heather restitution, but he claims that he's broke. Investigators are tracking any remaining assets. He is planning to appeal his conviction. (C: Troy Roberts - P: Peter Henderson)

04/21/07- 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Nightmare In Napa" - an updated report on the October 2004 murders of former beauty queen Leslie Mazzara and her roommate, Adriane Insogna, in the upstairs bedrooms of their Napa, California home. A third roommate, Lauren Mianza, sleeping downstairs, was not harmed and was the only witness. After almost a year's investigation, one clue -- the discarded butts of Camel Turkish Gold cigarettes found at the scene -- led to Eric Copple, the husband of Insogna's best friend, Lily Prudhomme. Copple made admissions to the police that linked him to the crime. He was expected to stand trial in 2006 and could face the death penalty. Update: Copple and the District Attorney reached a deal and he pleaded guilty to two counts of first-degree murder, which spared him the death penalty. In January 2007, he was sentenced to life in prison without the possibility of parole. He forfeited all rights of appeal or clemency. (C: Bill Lagattuta - P: Paul LaRosa) (Update of "Nightmare In Napa" OAD: 11/19/05)

04/28/07 - 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Murder In The Fast Lane" - an updated report on the March 1988 murder of legendary racecar driver Mickey Thompson and his wife Trudy. Colleen Campbell, Thompson's sister and former mayor of San Juan Capistrano, CA, is convinced that Michael Goodwin, her brother's former partner, was the killer. Goodwin, earlier accused by Mickey Thompson of stealing hundreds of thousands from their business, denied that he hired two hitmen to commit the murders. He claimed that Campbell used her political influence to make him the prime suspect in the criminal investigation. He was arrested in December 2001 and was to stand trial in the summer of 2002. Update: After two and a half years, the case against Goodwin was dismissed by Orange County, but he was rearrested by authorities from Los Angeles County, who held him for another two and a half years. After five years of being held without bail, Goodwin was on trial in Pasadena, CA - eighteen years after the murders. He was found guilty of first degree murder and sentenced to two consecutive life terms, with no chance for parole. He plans to appeal based on his inability to present other possible suspects. (C: Bill Lagattuta - P: James Stolz) (Update of "Murder In The Fast Lane" OAD: 05/20/02)

05/05/07 - 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Power, Passion and Poison" - a report on the death of 50-year-old Kathy Augustine, a career politician from Nevada. Questions arose about the cause of her death after police received a tip from her husband's co-worker that she may have been poisoned, and toxicology reports further confirmed the presence of the powerful paralytic drug Succinylcholine. That discovery led to further questions about the death three years earlier of her estranged husband, Charles Augustine; her subsequent and immediate marriage to Chaz Higgs, a nurse who had cared for him, and if politics played any part in her death. Upon further investigation, Chaz Higgs was arrested and charged with the murder of Kathy Augustine. He is currently free on bail and his trial is scheduled to begin next month. Nevada authorities are no longer investigating alleged threats against Augustine by political enemies. Includes interviews with Augustine's parents, Phil & Kay Alfano; Reno Police Detective, Dave Jenkins; Charles Augustine's sons from a previous marriage, Larry and Greg. (C:

Troy Roberts - P: Lisa Freed, Doug Longhini, Steven Reiner)

05/12/07 - 48 HOURS MYSTERY - "Death of a Dream" - a follow-up to "The Last Dance", OAD: 05/06/06. In 2002, Catherine Woods, an aspiring dancer, left Ohio at age 17 and went to New York in search of fame and fortune, but ended up becoming a stripper to pay the rent. While in New York, she became involved with fitness instructor Paul Cortez, who, at first, was unaware of her exotic dancing career, while continuing to live with her ex-boyfriend David Haughn. On Sunday of the 2005 Thanksgiving weekend, Catherine was savagely murdered. The two men became suspects in her murder and it was then that her exotic dancing career came to light to the police and to her family. Police concluded that Paul Cortez, due to his jealous nature, was the prime suspect. He was arrested and ultimately convicted of Catherine's murder. He was sentenced to 25 years to life. Attorney Nathan Dershowitz is planning an appeal, claiming hair and other forensic evidence was never thoroughly tested. Included are interviews with David Haughn; Paul Cortez and his mother, Yvette Cortez; and Catherine's parents, Jon and Donna Woods. (C: Erin Moriarty - P: Patti Aronofsky)

05/19/07 - 48 HOURS MYSTERY - "Beyond the Boardwalk" - a report on the deaths of four women: Tracy Ann Roberts, Kim Raffo, Barbara Briedor, and Molly Jean Dilts, all suspected prostitutes and/or drug addicts. They were all found on November 20, 2006, in a ditch, facing east, without their shoes on near the Golden Key Motel on the outskirts of Atlantic City, NJ. Police suspect a serial killer but clues in the case have led to little information.. As of now, no one has been arrested or charged in the homicides. A person of interest, Terry Oleson, a handyman who lived at the motel and worked odd jobs to pay the rent, has been arrested for an unrelated offense - videotaping a minor in the nude with a hidden camera. His house has been searched and he has now been asked to provide DNA samples. (C: Harold Dow - P: Miguel Sancho)

05/26/07 - 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "A Shot In The Dark" (9:00-10:00pm) - Dr. Richard Illes, a successful heart surgeon, and his wife, Miriam, a homemaker and mother to their young son, were a prominent couple in their small community of Williamsport, PA. Then, on Jan. 15, 1999, Miriam was fatally shot as she stood in front of her kitchen window. Because Miriam had filed for divorce from her husband, investigators theorized that Richard Illes was responsible. Eventually, the killer's gun and sneakers were found not far from where Dr. Illes had been on the night of the murder. Illes had married his assistant and moved to Spokane, Washington, where he was finally apprehended and arrested. Upon searching Illes' home in Spokane, police found an manuscript in his computer entitled "Heart Shot: Murder Of The Doctor's Wife." A jury found Illes guilty of murder in the first degree. He maintains his innocence and is appealing his conviction. (C: Susan Spencer - Sr. P: Anthony Batson - P: Paul F. A subsequent phone tip suggesting that police re-investigate the apparent suicide in 1990 of another Georgia woman, Dolly Hearn, led to the discovery that Bart Corbin had been Hearn's boyfriend and that she had broken up with him just before her death. Jennifer Corbin, involved in an online romance, had told her family that she was planning to leave Bart. Bart was arrested for the murder of both women. When Richard Wilson, a friend of Bart's, admitted to police that he had given Bart the gun which was found beside Jennifer's body, Bart admitted that he had killed both Dolly and Jennifer. He was given two life sentences, to be served concurrently, and could be eligible for parole as early as 2020. (C: Pater Van Sant - P: Loen Kelley - Jenna Jackson) (OAD: 02/03/07)

06/12/07 - 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Caught in the Crossfire" - Charla and Darren Mack of Reno, Nevada, were a married, childless couple who were swingers - they liked to attend group sex parties. But after their daughter Ericka was born, Charla was no longer interested in swinging. The marriage began to crumble. Charla filed for divorce; they fought over their daughter and over money. Family court Judge Chuck Weller, perceived by many to be biased towards women in family disputes, ordered Darren to pay Charla a lump sum of $480,000 and, over the next five years, $10,000 a month in spousal support. On June 12, 2006, a bullet was fired through the window of Judge Weller's chambers, spraying him with shrapnel. Shortly afterwards, police found Charla's dead body at Darren's condo. Darren had fled to Mexico. On June 22, he turned himself in to the police and was brought back to the United States. He was charged with the murder of his wife and the attempted murder of Judge Weller. The trial will not begin until later this year. Charla's mother and Darren's mother are battling over custody of Erika, who is currently living with Charla's mother. Prosecutors will not seek the death penalty for Darren Mack. (Includes portions of "The Alibi", OAD: 10-11-02) Camm's conviction was reversed in 2004. In the meanwhile, after previously unresearched DNA evidence and a palm print found at the crime scene were run through a databank of convicted felons, a new suspect was found: Charles Darnell Boney. Boney had been released from prison just months before the murders. In 2005, Boney was arrested, resulting in charges against

Camm being dismissed. But Camm was arrested minutes later for the murders, due to the belief by the prosecution that he and Boney acted together. They were tried separately and in January 2006, Boney was convicted for the homicides and sentenced to 225 years in prison. In March 2006, Camm was found guilty of murdering his wife and children and was sentenced to life in prison without parole.
